DAILY ACTS OF KINDNESS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

1 Scroll through your contacts and
send a kind text to a
friend you haven't
spoken to in a while.

2 Try one of our
compassion
meditations - all
available here

2 Notice the tone of your self-talk. If it's harsh, rephrase the
thought as if
speaking to a friend.

3 Take a one-hour
break from all screens
and social media.
Use the time for a
quiet, offline activity.

4 Spend 10 minutes
outside focusing
on the sensory details
of the natural world
to ground yourself.

5 Spend 5 minutes
sending loving
kindness to yourself,
your loved ones, and
people you find difficult.

6 Write down
three things you like
about yourself. Place
the note somewhere
you'll see it later

7 Listen fully
to someone without interrupting or
offering advice as an act of kindness.

9 Let go of a
small annoyance or
frustration someone
caused you.
Decide it's not worth
holding onto.

10 Send a kind
text or email to a
spoken to in a while.

11 Write a handwritten letter to someone
expressing exactly
why you value them.

12 Make a loved
one a cup of tea, or
do a chore without being asked.

13 Today is World
Kindness Day!
Reflect on how you
can be kinder
to yourself!

14 Be kind to the body. Take time to
mindfully stretch
regularly throughout
the day.

15 Try out this
Loving Kindness
Meditation.

16 Celebrate small
achievements. This kindness habit
helps build joy.

17 Rest without
guilt. Give yourself
permission to
pause today.

18 Dedicate 15
minutes to an activity purely for
enjoyment.

19 Donate an
item you no longer
need to someone
who could use it.

20 Write down one
boundary you need
to honour more
consistently

Songs that comfort
or uplift your spirit.

enough. I am
enough."

required" hour.
No goals, no fixing –
just being.
